Dear Commander Ross:

Allen W. Dulles, Director of Central Intelligence, asked me to thank you for your letter of 2 December 1960.

It is my understanding from your letter that you have a 154-page treatise on Communism which you are offering to the Central Intelligence Agency for its perusal without any monetary considerations.

We have, as you may know, rather vast quantities of material on all phases of Communism, but we would be interested in reading your treatise if you care to forward it to us.

Thank you for your letter.

Sincerely,

/s/

Stanley J. Grogan
Assistant to the Director
